AREAS OF PRACTICE

Mr. Bickham is an associate attorney in the firm's transactional department. He has worked with developers, business owners, community associations and individuals on a variety of business and real estate related legal matters for over ten years. Specific areas of practice include drafting, analyzing and negotiating all types of agreements for property, goods and services; forming and dissolving corporations, partnerships and limited liability companies; drafting and negotiating real estate purchase and lease agreements; overseeing new subdivision approvals by state and local governmental entities; preparing easements, CC&Rs and other land use agreements; performing due diligence and resolving title issues; drafting, analyzing and negotiating finance documents for acquisition, construction and permanent loans with institutional and private lenders; and negotiating debt settlements for businesses and individuals. He is also a licensed California Real Estate Broker.

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Mr. Bickham has practiced both in-house and in law firms, so he can readily appreciate the legal needs and demands of businesses and individuals from both perspectives. He has also created new community associations as well as served on association board of directors giving him unique insight into the practical business as well as legal issues which arise in their on-going operations.

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

Mr. Bickham graduated cum laude from Western State University College of Law where he received his Juris Doctor degree in 2002 and served as Editor-in-Chief of the WSU Law Review. He also has a MBA degree from California Polytechnic State University San Luis Obispo and a BS degree from California State Polytechnic University Pomona.
