Jean M. Moriarty, Esq.

Jean has more than three decades of law experience including 26 years as one of the most senior litigation attorneys for Farmers Insurance Group.

During those years, she has amassed literally unequalled experience in personally handling and supervising litigation matters involving California Community Associations, directors, property owners, community managers, business owners and others. In that capacity, she has personally negotiated thousands of advantageous settlements and successfully conducted hundreds of bench trials and more than 45 jury trials!

In doing so, Jean has developed substantial knowledge and expertise in a broad spectrum of areas within the scope of our firm's practice, including HOA law, covenant enforcement, insurance, premises liability (including water intrusion, mold, plumbing, tree root damage, trip & fall, dog bite, etc.), personal injury, landlord/tenant and director's liability.

Jean has been practicing law in California since 1985, and is a proud member of the exclusive American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) and is a past adjunct professor of law at her alma mater, Western State University School of Law.
