

CHAD T. THOMAS

PRINCIPAL | BERDING & WEIL LLP

cthomas@berdingweil.com

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Chad Thomas is a Principal at Berding | Weil. He is also a member of the Executive Committee and is the firm's Managing Partner. Mr. Thomas represents common interest developments, commercial land owners, businesses, and individuals. He specializes in handling complex construction-defect cases as well as business litigation and real-estate disputes.

During his tenure at Berding | Weil, Mr. Thomas has handled complex real estate disputes, breach of contract actions, cases involving mold and asbestos, insurance coverage disputes, professional liability actions, debt collection, and product liability cases. He has also advised common interest developments on general matters, including governing document analysis and interpretation, drafting and administering contracts for maintenance, repair, and reconstruction of common area and separate interest property. He has successfully resolved many cases and recovered millions of dollars for the firm's clients. He has appeared and argued in state courts throughout California.

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Prior to joining Berding | Weil, Mr. Thomas practiced in San Jose, California focusing on real estate litigation. Mr. Thomas' experience ranges from representing one of the nations largest residential real estate developers to small business owners and individuals in real estate and construction defect litigation.

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

Mr. Thomas received his Juris Doctor from the University of Pacific, McGeorge School of Law in 2003, where he was a member of the Dean's Council and the California Law Revision Seminar. He received his B.S. from St. Mary's College of California in 2000, where he was a scholarship athlete and a politics major.

BAR MEMBERSHIPS

State Bar of California