AREAS OF PRACTICE

Nicholas Rogers is a partner in Berding|Weil's Corporate and Director and Officers Litigation Practice Groups. He has successfully defended common interest developments, directors and officers, and property managers against breach of fiduciary duty, negligence, enforcement, and statutory claims arising from the Davis-Stirling Common Interest Development Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act and the Fair Employment and Housing Act. Mr. Rogers also advises common interest developments and their directors and officers on wide range of transactional matters, risk management practices, and enforcement matters.

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Prior to joining Berding|Weil, Mr. Rogers defended employers, attorneys, physicians, health care providers, common interest developments, as well as directors and officers in employment, professional liability, and land use claims. Prior to law school, Mr. Rogers gained valuable experience as a document clerk for a large class action securities firm and interned for the County of Santa Barbara District Attorney.

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

Nicholas Rogers received his Juris Doctor from Golden Gate University School of Law in December 2006, where he was a merit scholarship recipient and member of the Dean's List. Mr. Rogers graduated with his B.A. in Political Science from the University of California at Santa Barbara in 2000, where he was a member of the Dean's List.
