AREAS OF PRACTICE

Drawing on her diverse experience in finance, marketing, and property management, Kristina contributes her expertise to the client relations team. Her warm and approachable demeanor shines through as she works diligently to foster enduring connections with clients. With a profound understanding of the Hawaii market and the potential hurdles clients may encounter, Kristina goes the extra mile to guarantee that every interaction is seamless, prompt, and infused with the spirit of aloha.

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Prior to joining Berding & Weil, Kristina's career journey included serving as a natural gas broker on Wall Street, followed by her role at Associa Hawaii as a community manager, where she later advanced to become the director of business development. Additionally, she runs a successful mortgage broker business alongside her other professional commitments.
